

Weekly Message Weekly Message

Greetings special friends,
I hope that this message finds you in the middle of a great week. I am in awe each week at how much I continue to learn and marvel about computers. They are truly a miracle for every home and business. However, they can also bring the biggest disaster of your day, and week, if they crash. The internet is another marvel and the resources are absolutely limitless. I hope that you are using these resources to help you find even common, day to day items. For dance/drill teams, make sure to resource www.DanceUSA.com. They have links to everything you might need!

Here are some thoughts for the day:

“Before you take anything away, you must have something better to put in its place.”

Arthur Schopenhauer (1788-18600 philosopher

“Everybody has barriers and obstacles. If you look at them as containing fences that don’t allow you to advance, then you’re going to be a failure. If you look as them as hurdles that strengthen you each time you go over one, then you’re going to be a success.” Benjamin Carson, surgeon

“We learn to walk by stumbling.” Bulgarian proverb

.....

“Light tomorrow with today.” Elizabeth Barrett Browning (1806-1861) poet

.....

Technology never ceases to amaze me. I thought you might like some light hearted looks as to how computer technology affects our daily lives. Enjoy the proverbs below, and, as always, keep in touch!
