

Weekly Message Weekly Message

Greetings special friends,
Two more weeks until school is out. Our Weekly Message will take a break over the summer as so many of you have school e-mail that you cannot check. Time is running out to sign up for camps and many summer camps are filling quickly. Make sure to visit our web site and link to the Summer Camp page (<http://www.danceadts.com/summercamps.htm>) to find a camp that is right for you. Next week we will post a list of the routines being offered at all the camps. This will be a way to plan ahead on which routines you wish to learn. Here are some thoughts for the day:

“If you destroy a bridge, make sure you can swim.” African proverb

“The most important thing in communication is to hear what isn’t being said.” Peter F. Drucker, management consultant and writer
.....

“Having looked the past in the eye, having asked for forgiveness and having made amends, let us shut the door on the past – not in order to forget it but in order not to allow it to imprison us.”
Desmond Tutu, clergyman and civil rights leader

“We conquer by continuing.”
George Matheson (1842-1906) theologian and hymn writer
.....

I have the hardest time remembering every birthday and occasion that comes along. Thank goodness that I came across this web site a couple of years ago that can keep me on track. It is <http://www.birthdayalarm.com>. It has been a life saver and a free service to remember all the birthdays, anniversaries and special occasions.

Family is the glue that connects us together, whether it is our real family, work family or dance/drill team family. There is a special passage I came across that is perfect for any and every family, including ones that are an eclectic mixture of personalities. I hope you enjoy this as you plan ahead to spend time with your family this weekend.

Have a wonderful week and weekend ahead, and, as always, please keep in touch.
