Greetings to all of you,
It looks like old man winter will take over the majority of us this week. The temperature today reached almost 80° and will be down to 24° tomorrow night.

Brrrr! Bundle up and stay warm. Since football season is winding down for many of you, it is time to recharge your choreography.

Check the One Day Dance Intensive Workshops that start this Saturday on our web site at www.danceadts.com.

Here are some thoughts for the day:

"Love, like virtue, is its own reward." John Vanbrough, author
~~~~~

~~~~~
"Every day is a leap of faith." Lizz Wright, musician
~~~~~

~~~~~
"We're all of us a little greedy. We're all somewhat courageous, and we're all considerably cowardly. We're all imperfect, and life is simply a perpetual, unending struggle against those imperfections." Sidney Poitier, actor
~~~~~

"Motivation is simple. You eliminate those who are not motivated." Lou Holtz, college football coach
~~~~~

Many states are in the midst of football playoffs while others are looking ahead to other competitions. I came across this passage on Losers vs. Winners and it can apply to any activity. I hope it has a powerful message for you this week.

Have a fabulous week, stay warm, and always keep in touch!

Losers vs. Winners

12 statements that losers make

We've never done it before.
It's too complicated.
We don't have the resources.
It will never work.
There's not enough time.
We've already tried.
There's no way it will work.
It is a waste of time.
It's not good enough.
It can't be done.
It's not my job.
I can't.

11 statements that winners make

We have the opportunity to be first.
Let's look at this at this from a different angle.
Necessity is the mother of invention.
We will give it a try.
We'll re-evaluate some priorities.
Think of the possibilities.
There always room for improvement.
It will be a challenge.
I'll be glad to take their responsibility.
I can.
Whatever it takes.
