

Weekly Message Weekly Message

Greetings special friends,
This weekend will be our first 'triple header' for contests with three great events. Make sure to visit our web site often to see dates, locations, maps, schedules and results for these great events. <http://www.DanceADTS.com>

Here are some thoughts for the day:

"Far away there in the sunshine are my highest aspirations.
I may not reach them, but I can look up and see their beautify, believe in them, and try to follow their lead."
Louisa May Alcott (1832-1888) writer

"Enemies should be chosen as carefully as friends."
author unknown

"Tact is the art of recognizing when to be big and when not to belittle."
Bill Copeland, business leader

"You do not have to be rich to be generous. If he has the spirit of true generosity, a pauper can give like a prince."
Corrine U. Wells

I came across a collection of one liners that offer a great insight to the wisdom of life. Some will make you chuckle, while others will make you think. I hope you enjoy them as I did.

Have a wonderful week, and, as always, please keep in touch.

An optimist thinks that this is the best possible world. A pessimist fears that this is true.

There will always be death and taxes; however, death doesn't get worse every year.

In just two days, tomorrow will be yesterday.

I plan on living forever. So far, so good.

A day without sunshine is like night.

If marriage were outlawed, only outlaws would have in-laws.

Brain cells come and brain cells go, but fat cells live forever.

Age doesn't always bring wisdom. Sometimes age comes alone.

Life not only begins at forty, it also begins to show.

You don't stop laughing because you grow old, you grow old because you stopped laughing.
