Greetings special friends,
I hope you are planning a wonderful family gathering to celebrate Easter and Passover with lots of exciting activities. Our family has evolved to all adults but we have never missed an Easter Egg Hunt with fun prizes and gifts for the grown ups. We all scurry like a covey of quail to grab more Easter Eggs than the next person. We have loads of fun and laughter as well as family fun.

Here are some thoughts for the day:

“The most important single influence in the life of a person is another person who is worthy of emulation.”

Paul D. Shafer

“The starting point of achievement is desire. Keep this constantly in mind. Weak desires produce weak results, just as a small amount of fire produces a small amount of heat.”

Napoleon Hill (1882-1970) motivational writer

“Cooperation is doing with a smile what you have to do anyway.”
author unknown

“When people are made to feel secure and important and appreciated, it will no longer be necessary for them to whittle down others in order to seem bigger by comparison.”

Virginia Arcastle

Pete Beckary, editor of the Lancaster County Signs of Faith, wrote some very interesting phrases that use a play on words. They have a way of making a point that is different from all others. I hope they hit home with you as they did with me.

Have a safe and pleasant Easter holidays, and, as always, please keep in touch.
