Greetings to you today,
I hope that your week has been eventful and fun. It is a glorious day here in Central Texas. The temperatures are finally starting to mellow out from summer and gradually turn into milder, cooler mornings and evenings. It is a joy to sit on our back porch and watch the deer wander up to the deer feeder. They are truly beautiful creatures.

Here are some thoughts for the day:

“Failure to recognize possibilities is the most dangerous and common mistake one can make.”

Mae Jamison, astronaut

“If there is one skill in life that we all need to learn, it’s how to get back up, dust ourselves off, and get on with things.” A.C. Ping, motivational speaker

“You do not determine your success by comparing yourself to others, rather you determine your success by comparing your accomplishments to your capabilities.”

Zig Ziglar, motivational speaker and writer

“It is far easier to leave angry words unspoken than to mend the heart those words have broken.”

We are delighted to have several special performance opportunities including the Macy’s Thanksgiving Day Parade™, the Capital One Bowl, Hill Country Extravaganza, and the Dallas Desperados halftime. Learn more about these and other Special Events on our web site. www.danceadts.com

We all have our ideas as to what are the greatest values in our life. I came across a passage that really makes you focus on what is most important. I hope that you are touched by it, as I was.

Have a fabulous week, and, as always, please keep in touch!
