American Weekly Inspiration

Thoughts for today and every day:

“Candor is a compliment; it implies equality. It’s how true friends talk.”

Peggy Noonan, author and columnist

§§§§§§§§§§

“Rather the bite of a friend than the kiss of an enemy.”

Shalom Aleichem (1859-1916) humorist

“Opportunities are there, but we can’t start out as vice president.

Even if we landed such a position, it wouldn’t do us any good because we wouldn’t know how to do our work. It’s better to start where we fit in, then work our way up.” Ben Carson with Cecil

Murphey, Gifted Hands (Zondervan)

§§§§§§§§§§

“Never be afraid to take on a really tough problem. When you solve it, the benefits will be that much greater.”

Carl A. Gerstacker (1916-1995) business executive

American Update:

Many of you will be participating in, or attending, Homecoming activities. This is a time to gather together and see old friends, review traditions, share the simple pride and common denominator of belonging to your beloved school. Never hesitate to be a part of this long standing tradition and take the time to renew old friendships.

Have you ordered special performance makeup for your team? Don’t forget Biogime with their incredibly affordable prices for the highest quality if performance makeup. Contact them at Biogcorp@aol.com or visit their web site at <http://ddc.simplybiogime.com/>.

Inspiration of the Week:

GOLDEN RULES

(found on the bulletin board in the drill team office)

If you open it, close it.

If you turn it on, turn it off.

If you unlock it, lock it.

If you break it, repair it.

If you can't fix it, call someone who can.

If you borrow it, return it.

If you use it, take care of it.

If you make a mess, clean it up.

If it's in the way move it.

If you move it, put it back.

If you do not know how to operate it, leave it alone.

if it does not concern you,

MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS!
